SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong State University junior Peyton Roth and sophomores Tori Bates and Savanna Gladue have been named to the 2015 Peach Belt Conference All-Academic Softball team, released this week by conference officials.

The team is part of a season-long program recognizing the outstanding accomplishments of PBC student-athletes in the classroom as well as on the field. To be eligible for the All-Academic team, a student-athlete must 1) participate in at least half of his/her team's events and be either a starter or significant contributor; 2) achieved a 3.30 cumulative grade point average (on a 4.0 scale) and 3) completed at least one full academic year at his or her current institution and has reached sophomore athletic eligibility.

Roth earns a spot on the team for a second straight year. The second baseman from Fayetteville, Ga., carries a 3.836 GPA in health and physical education. Bates and Gladue, meanwhile, each earn spots on the team for the first time. Both carry 3.804 GPAs in rehabilitation sciences.
